Superintendent's Highlights

Achievement of the goals has been the highlight of the past year. Although enrollment continues to go down we have been able to maintain high morale and the students are continuing to receive a quality education. We have been able to continue to make capital improvements with limited resources. Our facilities continue to be to rate. Student performance on Standardized Test continues to be excellent although we had a little drop this year.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

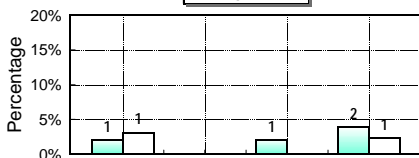

2000-01 Goals	Progress
Technology	All teachers in the district are now certified in technology.
Staff In service	Character Education and the Literacy in Reading Courses have all been completed. Implementation of the above training is in process. Students are learning well what we want them to learn in these areas.
Reading	Students continue to meet or exceed all reading goals established at each grade level. This program has been expanded to the Junior High and is going well.
Talented and Gifted	This program has been strengthened and expanded to include the secondary students.
Special Education	Inclusion is occurring in the classrooms at all grade levels according to the intent of the law. Better direction and coordination of the Pre School program is now happening with a better understanding of the Medicaid billing procedures.
Staff Morale	Continues to be good in the face of some very difficult circumstances with a declining enrollment and budget constraints. Leadership in the instruction and administrative areas has been of exceptional high quality.
Community Relations	An excellent relationship exist between the school district and the community. Patrons continue to be very supportive of the school system.
